

Media Contact:

Shari Misher
London Misher Public Relations
212-759-2800
Shari@londonmisherpr.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ORTHODOLOGY – INNOVATIVE SOLUTION FOR CHRONIC PAIN
AND PHYSICAL INJURIES - ANNOUNCES PARTNERSHIP WITH THE MINNESOTA VIKINGS

EDEN PRAIRIE, Minn., July 31, 2014 – Orthology, a world-class solution for rapid recovery from chronic pain and physical injuries, announced today that it is a new proud partner of the Minnesota Vikings. Based on patent pending, research-based methodology developed by Orthology Chief Clinical Officer, Dr. Josh Sandell, Orthology rapidly resolves injuries, restores function and improves athletic performance. As a proud partner, Orthology, in conjunction with Eric Sugarman the Director of Sports Medicine and the entire Minnesota Vikings medical staff, will help the Vikings players get better faster by providing collaborative, unprecedented care and treatment during the 2014 NFL season.

As part of this partnership, an Orthology clinician will be on-site at all home and away games, as well as attend several days of training camp to provide Orthology treatment throughout the pre-season. In addition, Vikings players will be given year-round preferred access to the state-of-the-art Orthology facility located in Eden Prairie, Minnesota, near the Vikings practice facility.

“After years of working with Greg Jennings, Kyle Rudolph and many other Vikings, I am excited to form an official partnership with the entire Vikings organization. It is with great pride and satisfaction that I help keep these players in top form throughout the long and demanding season,” said Dr. Josh Sandell, Orthology Chief Clinical Officer.

In conjunction with the partnership, Orthology social followers will have the opportunity to win an authentic signed Adrian Peterson jersey. Be sure to check out @Orthology_inc on Twitter, and Facebook for details on how to enter and win.

Delivered by highly trained collaborative care teams (physical therapists, soft-tissue specialists and chiropractors), Orthology focuses on eliminating the root cause of a patient’s pain in order to get people back to living life to the fullest, faster.

Orthology has three state-of-the-art locations in Eden Prairie, St. Louis Park, and Maple Grove. Booking appointments at Orthology is convenient and easy online at Orthology.com. In an effort to be affordable and accessible for all Minneapolis residents, Orthology accepts all major insurance plans.

For more information about Orthology, please contact Shari Misher @ London Misher Public Relations at 212-759-2800.

#

About Orthology:

Orthology is a world-class solution for rapid recovery from physical injuries and chronic pain. Our patent pending, research-based methodology, developed by Orthology Chief Clinical Officer Josh Sandell, is delivered by highly trained, collaborative care teams (physical therapists, soft-tissue specialists and chiropractors) and has been proven on some of the world's greatest professional athletes. We are committed to working with the industry's best people, processes and technology, in our state-of-the-art facilities, to always get people back to living life to the fullest, faster. Orthology accepts all major insurance plans. For more information, please visit Orthology.com.